

CAMILLA NERI

Camilla Neri was born in northern Italy (Cesena) and at the age of 13 she moved to Milan for a few years to study in one of the most prestigious Ballet academy La Scala Theater. After this journey she moved to Reggio Emilia and became a member of Agora Coaching Project, a professional contemporary school where she had the chance to deepen into contemporary movement and so study with a well-renowned range of international teachers and choreographers. In 2020 she moved to Berlin to attend the professional contemporary dance program DART DSP where she trained for one year until she had been chosen as an apprentice in DART Dance Company. Since 2021 Camilla has become a fixed member of the company as well as one of the contemporary and ballet teachers of the programs. Her background and experience includes the work of several choreographers such as Peter Chu, Blenard Azizaj, Anton Lachky, Noa Zuk, Ohad Fishof, Saaed Hani, Emanuele Soavi, Michele Merola and Ricardo Fernando.
